

A NON-PROFIT CAMP AFFILIATED WITH BNEI AKIVA OF THE US & CANADA

DRESS CODE - GIRLS

Tops

- Neckline - The neckline cannot extend more than an inch and a half below the collarbone and the neckline must not reveal cleavage when bending down.
- Sleeves must cover the armpit area when arm is raised.
- Sleeves that are very loose, even if long enough, are not appropriate if they reveal the armpit when raised.
- Off the shoulder shirts may not be worn.
- Any shirt with a very wide, loose neck that is prone to drifting off the shoulder should not be brought to camp.
- Shirts must cover the midriff area when arms are raised and when bending down. Very form-fitting and/or see-through shirts may not be worn.

Bottoms

- Skirts and pants must reach the knee when sitting AND standing.
- Yoga pants, jeggings, skinny jeans, and leggings may not be worn except under an article of clothing which independently reaches the knee.
- Bottoms with any form of writing across the back may not be worn.

Other

- Only full piece bathing suits or two-piece suits with a "tankini" top may be worn while swimming. Bikini tops may not be worn.
- No body piercings other than earrings are permissible.
- Underwear may not be showing at any time.
- Shabbat: White shirt and dark skirt must be worn on Friday night. No denim skirts, pants or sneakers are permitted on Shabbat.

DRESS CODE - BOYS

- Tzitzit and Kippot must be worn at all times.
- Shirts: No tank tops or undershirts (worn alone) are permissible. And a shirt must be worn at all times
- Shorts: All shorts must reach the top of the knees and cover the body modestly.
- No earrings or body piercings of any type.
- Underwear may not be showing at any time.
- Shabbat: Solid white shirt and dark slacks. No jeans or sneakers are permitted on Shabbat.

Our dress standards are based in accordance with the atmosphere of simplicity and modesty that is an integral part of Moshava. The best way to insure that there are no problems during the summer is to only bring clothing that fully meets these standards. Please DO NOT BRING clothing that does not meet the standards of the dress code. In choosing Moshava, we ask you to join hands and be our partner in this philosophy so that we can avoid uncomfortable situations and offer the most complete summer experience possible.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.